Money Invested in a Home Brings You Real Rewards

that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you're ready.

WALLACE BROTHERS

F. N. and J. G. Wallace, operating under the firm name of Wallace Brothers, leased the Younkin rooming house and Crystal theatre, and took possession of the same on Monday of this week. They will continue to run the rooming house as heretofore, furnishing good rooms at a popular price. In the theatre they expect to make some improvements. Their business in that line starts out well. Frank and John are both well known in this city, where they have resided and been in business a number of years. They are both hard workers, and we anticipate that they will succeed in their new enterprise.

Patrons of Adams express company at Alliance who have had occasion to call at the office have been greatly pleased with the improvements recently made by Agent R. M. Tinkcom and his assistants. A counter has been put in near the north door where the entrance is for customers. This and other improvements add very much to the convenience of the office at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Richards arrived in Alliance with their family from Broken Bow about the first of the month, having secured the cottage at the southwest corner of Sweetwater Ave. and Second street, where they will make their home. A. B. Bowman has the job of stacking this season for Jacobs & Oliver, who have the contract for putting up hay on the Joe Vaughan ranch, nineteen miles southwest of Alliance in Morrill county. They began work this week, cutting and stacking. Meyer, principal-elect of the Alliance High school, left last Saturday morning for his home at Peru, Neb., going via Omaha to take in the tennis tournament, in which he will play this week. Since the close of school, he has been setting the youths of Alliance an excellent example of industry, having been working for D. W. Hughes, the ice man. Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Binderup's little girl, Catherine, born July 31, is doing nicely. She is the joy of her parents and the pride of her only brother, of whom she is the only sister.

However, if the train is not too early they expect to make the trip this (Friday) morning.—Rushville Standard, Aug. 4.

DEPARTS LIFE AT RIPE AGE

Death Came to Grandma Hashman Last Friday Morning

Mrs. Ruth Hashman, mother of C. L. Hashman, died at the residence of her son, ten miles northwest of Alliance, last Friday morning, after an illness of several months with dropsy. She had reached a ripe old age. Had she lived until the first of October she would have been eighty-five years of age. Since the death of her husband, nineteen years ago, she has made her home with her son in this county, and had many friends in the neighborhood in which she lived, who unite with the relatives in mourning her departure.

The remains were sent to Mercer, Mo., accompanied by C. L. Hashman, and were interred in the cemetery near Lineville, Ia., the funeral services being conducted by the pastor of the Christian church, of which denomination she was a member for many years.
